Jackman-Graham.

The marriage of Miss Lillian Jackman and Mr. Crumpton Graham, which was solemnized yesterday at noon at the parsonage, of the Hyde Park Methodist church, was a surprise and an event of much interest to the numerous friends of the contracting parties.

Rev. L. M. Broyles, pastor of the Hyde Park Methodist church, performed the ceremony in the presence of only the brother and sister-in-law of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Graham, and the sister of the bride, Mrs. Stanford.

The bride was attired in a handsome coat suit of brown velvet, with accessories to match. She is one of Tampa's attractive and a popular young girl and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackman.

Mr. Graham is connected with the C. H. Moorehouse Co., of this city, and is highly esteemed by a large circle of friends. The happy couple left immediately after the ceremony for a ten days' wedding trip, which will include a visit to the east coast. Upon their return they will be at home at 611 S. Delaware Ave. Their many friends unite in wishing them all future happiness.—The Tampa Daily Times.

The New Hotel-Keeper.

No enterprise builds up a town faster than a good hotel, one that has a reputation for close attention and one where the most inviting table is spread before guests. A hotel that is given such attention will at all times have a fine run of custom. It is the home for traveling salesmen, who are at all times looking for a good hotel in which to spend Sundays. Mr. C. G. Jeffries who recently purchased the Hancock Hotel, and who has renovated the building from top to bottom, shows how to please guests, his wife being use to good things, and an adept in culinary affairs, knows what to furnish to please the taste. There is not a doubt but the new proprietor has started with the determination to give entire satisfaction. The business men of Columbia are interested in having a first-class hotel, not one doubts the town will have one under the administration of Mr. Jeffries. Mr. Tandy the former proprietor has been sick for more than a year, and it was impossible for him to give the business the attention it deserved, but his hotel was above the average, and his table is good as many country hotels. He will remain in Columbia and Mr. Jeffries has his very best wishes.

Rev. W. A. Grant.

Rev. W. A. Grant, the new pastor of the Methodist church, is being cordially greeted by his own church and all the churches of the town. Though having been here only a very few weeks, he has made a lasting and deep impression upon the public through his strong personality, his deep intellect, and his great earnestness in his divine work. He will be a splendid addition to the life of Glasgow and no doubt will take a leading part in the educational and civic affairs of the town.

He comes to Glasgow after a very successful year at Clay, Ky., and over the protest of the entire congregation at that place was he given the appointment.

The following extract taken from the Clay paper is a strong testimonial of the popularity and the great esteem in which Rev. Grant was held at Clay:

"His magnetic personality has accomplished wonderful results. The congregations have increased at each service, including the prayer meeting services which are always well attended, much interest being evinced. He has especially been able to get in close touch with the manhood of the community, many of whom have become regular attendants at divine services through his appeals to their better natures. All sermons have ever been close to the mark, he ever preaching a high standard and a pure walk, making no compromise with evil in any form, but attacking it fearlessly at every point.

"We feel assured Bro. Grant and his estimable wife will accomplish much in their new field, as they have in this city."—Glasgow Times

The subject of the above sketch was born and reared in Adair county, and has yet many relatives living here. He was educated at the Lindsey-Wilson Training School, and is kindly remembered by his old school-mates.

Casey Jones Store

A few years ago we opened a General Store in Columbia, and from the start the people throughout Adair county have liberally patronized us. We have endeavored to please our customers, and we feel sure that our efforts have not been in vain. We are not paying as high rent as other merchants, hence we can afford to mark OUR GOODS DOWN.

WE ARE VERY THANKFUL to our many friends for their favors, and during this good year of 1918 we will make a greater effort to please than in any year in the past.

WHAT WE KEEP.

IN OUR STORE you can find any article kept in a Dry Goods Store, and you will also find that it can be bought cheaper than elsewhere in Columbia.

It is a pleasure for us or our clerks to show goods. Come in, call for what you want and you will be accommodated.

REMEMBER THE PLACE

CASEY JONES STORE

To Our Customers

FIRST—We want to thank you for the liberal patronage we received during the year 1917. Our business was good, due to your friendship.

SECOND—During the year 1918, we will use the same diligence to please, and will at all times keep a full stock of Staple and Fancy Groceries.

OUR HARDWARE DEPARTMENT is up-to-date, and we can furnish you anything you need in that line. We have on sale a large stock of stoves for cooking and heating, and our farm implement department is complete.

Come in and examine our prices. We are here to please you.

Persons owing us notes and accounts past due will please call and settle.

Barger Brothers.

My Friends Have Been Loyal

It has been the custom from time immemorial to return thanks for favors bestowed, and I will not depart from that ancient rule. Therefore, I want to express my gratitude to the people of my native county for their liberal support during the year 1917, and to ask that they continue with me during the twelve months of 1918.

GROCERIES, FARM IMPLEMENTS AND SEEDS

Have been the principle articles handled by me and I have been liberally patronized by my friends. I have endeavored to place upon the market the best, and I feel confident that I have not practiced extortion in a single instance. I will continue to do my best to keep before you the Choicest of Groceries, Staple and Fancy, and the Most Durable Farm Implements that the factories make. My prices have been right in the past, and will so continue in the future. When needing anything in my lines, call at my store.
